

MOU with Tamansiswa Palembang University (Indonesia)

MOU with Tamansiswa Palembang University (Indonesia)

Tamansiswa Palembang University (TPU), located at the south Sumatra province of the republic of Indonesia. TPU is a private University duly approved by the Ministry of Education, Republic of Indonesia. University came into existence in 1985 and is governed by the Tamansiswa University. The University has 11 different faculties including the Agro Technology, Accounting, Management, Law, English Education and Engineering. The University runs Undergraduate and Post Graduate Programmes in different faculties and caters to regional as well as students from different parts of Indonesia. The University works in close collaboration with the local industry to produce readily employable graduates. In order to polish the employability skills of the students, University focuses on both the technical and soft skills of the students. In order to support this, the course curriculum at TPU is regularly updated in close collaboration with the renowned academic and industry leaders.

MOU was signed by Prof. (Dr.) Maulana Vice Rector on behalf of Tamansiswa Palembang University

